BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

The Reverend Dr. Charles E. Goodman, Jr. celebrates nineteen years as the Senior Pastor/Teacher of The Historic Tabernacle Baptist Church of Augusta, Georgia. Under his dynamic leadership and vision “one church in multiple locations” was birthed which now encompasses over 15,000 partners to include our TAB Global audience with multiple weekly services, in-person and virtually. Prior to his kingdom assignment at Tabernacle, he shepherded the Pleasant View Missionary Baptist Church in Salem, Alabama for three and a half years.

Dr. Goodman received his undergraduate degree from Wake Forest University in Winston Salem, NC, with honors. He earned a Master of Divinity degree from Candler School of Theology at Emory University in Atlanta, Ga and his Doctor of Ministry from Wesley Theological Seminary in Washington, DC. An avid learner and pupil of excellence, he also earned a Master of Management with a concentration in Organizational Leadership from Cambridge College and was a practitioner of the Clergy Scholars Program hosted by Yale University. In 2020, he completed an Executive Coaching Certification in Diversity from the collaboration between CoachDiversity and Howard University Business School. In 2023, he successfully defended his research on the Black Church and Leadership in times of Crisis and has earned a Doctor of Philosophy(PhD) in Leadership degree from Anderson University in Anderson, South Carolina. Dr. Goodman recently was selected in the summer of 2023 as a Preaching Exemplar in the inaugural cohort for the Compelling Preaching Initiative at Christian Theological Seminary, under the leadership of Dr. Frank Thomas, which seeks to further the sacred tradition of African American Preaching through scholarship and mentorship. In the summer of 2024 Dr. Goodman was elected as an official board member for the prestigious Hampton University Minister’s and Choir Guild Conference. In December 2025 he was selected by the National Black Church Initiative as one of the 25 Most Effective Christian Biblical Preachers of 2025-2026 in the Black Preaching Tradition.

He serves on many community boards and as an adjunct professor/mentor at institutions of higher learning. He is also a content-contributor to many ministry publications concerning ministry methodologies and contemporary preaching. Dr. Goodman has also preached and studied in the Holy Land.

He is the author of five books: You Can’t Run from Purpose, Road to Recovery, The Flip Side of Favor, It’s Complicated and PG’s Preacher Playbook.

A native of Greensboro, NC, Dr. Goodman comes from a faith-built foundation demonstrated to him by his grandparents, Deacon Ernest, and Mrs. Charlotte Swann, who raised him.

Affectionately known as “PG” by his congregation, he is well respected in his community as one who lives to serve.

A sports enthusiast, he is a diehard Philadelphia Eagles fan and a member of Omega Psi Phi and Sigma Pi Phi fraternities.

Gripped by His grace and love, Dr. Charles E. Goodman, Jr., is a most sought-after speaker, revivalist and lecturer, who is called upon to empower and encourage the people of God as he travels the world proclaiming the Word of God in practical and applicable ways.

YOU CAN'T RUN FROM PURPOSE

Are you living God's purpose for your life? Or are you, like many others, running from God's purpose? In "You Can't Run From Purpose," Dr. Charles E. Goodman, Jr. explores the real life struggles we face when confronted with the tense battle between our will and the Will of God.

ROAD TO RECOVERY

In the "Road to Recovery," Dr. Goodman shares teachings on how to apply Christian principles during seasons of loss while exploring the journey of Ruth and Naomi in the Old Testament. From a season of barrenness to a season of blessedness, Ruth's and Naomi's story is a biblical example of restoration after death, poverty and desertion.

THE FLIP SIDE OF FAVOR

In "The Flip Side of Favor," Dr. Goodman provides an insightful, illustrative and biblically based narrative that is centered on the life of most notable favored person in biblical history, Joseph; the one who is gifted with a "coat of many colors." Dr. Goodman unveils the FLIPSIDE of FAVOR by taking the reader on a journey as they explore how Joseph endured the PIT, POTIPHER'S HOUSE and PRISON before he makes his way to the palace.

IT'S COMPLICATED!

Relationships on every level can be confusing, frustrating and complicated. From work relationships, to love relationships and everywhere between, relationships can either be beneficial or detrimental. Dr. Goodman tackles how to navigate the nuances of relationships by providing biblical insight into how to manage and form the proper perspectives.

PG'S PREACHER PLAYBOOK

A 40-day journey designed to help you live well, preach well, and lead well. Blending biblical insight with practical tools, this guide equips preachers/teachers to move from studying the text to delivering clear, compelling, and Christ-centered sermons while growing in spiritual discipline, leadership, and authentic voice.
